Happy Thanksgiving

*Trees adorned in splendid
Hues of orange and gold,
Autumn days grown shorter,
North winds turning cold.
Knowingly creation
Seems to be aware
God’s promise of the seasons
Is proof that He is there.
Verily creation
Invites us to recall
Now with a grateful heart
God has supplied it all.*

TERRY'S THOUGHTS

As I sit here, at my desk, to begin the process of unpacking all that took place at our Annual Meeting I find myself still overwhelmed by the presence of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit manifested itself through several small yet powerful ways throughout the day.

First, I saw the Spirit move through the cooperation of Little River Baptist Church, our host church. Little River bent over backwards to assist in the details of producing an Annual Meeting and did so with a joyful attitude. Unfortunately, Pastor Marc Reynolds was unable to attend and tend to the details due to sickness, however, because of his leadership at Little River the members stepped up and served the association with grace and a “you got it” attitude. Secondly, the Spirit moved among the pastors and messengers attending our meeting. From the reports, business, fellowship, and the concluding worship time there was a spirit of cooperation clearly witnessed. Third, the worship team from North Greenville University and Dr. Chris Schofield were the perfect combination to usher us into the presence of the Lord to hear what He had to say to us.

One of our guests from the Pennsylvania partnership said, “This meeting was nothing like I expected.” Meaning he expected just a time of business and boring reports. He went on to say, “Instead this meeting was one of the best meetings, in terms of our spirit and attitudes of cooperation, that he had ever been a part of.” I believe he specifically said to me, “Dude this was awesome, seriously!” In short, without the cooperation of our officers, our host church, the TBA staff (primarily Nancy), North Greenfield University worship team, Dr. Chris Schofield, and the numerous volunteers, this meeting could have been less effective, but instead it was incredible and the Holy Spirit moved among us. Fortunately, the Annual Meeting was a watershed moment and has the potential to launch us into greater opportunities to impact lostness than we have experienced in quite some time.

So, where do we go from here? What messages did we hear from the Lord during our meeting? From my perspective the Lord reminded me that while there are still many challenges before us, He is not done using the TBA for His glory. Additionally, the Lord reminded me that He has placed, within the TBA, the resources to do all He has called us to do. The question is, are we ready to step out in faith to boldly follow Jesus wherever He leads or are we going to enjoy this moment of joy and fall back into the same routines that have failed to reach those in need of a Savior? I say the answer is absolutely not and in fact it is my commitment to assist in the facilitation of a new and powerful Awakening among His churches here in Transylvania County.

My question to you is will you join us? Will you work together with your fellow brothers and sisters among our churches to achieve all the Lord has in store for us without a sense of jealousy or competition? If our Annual Meeting was any indication of your willingness to cooperate, we are already half way there. Because of your commitment I am extremely excited about our future regardless of what our enemies might say. Remember, in Christ we can do all things, and to live for Christ always results in His glory as well as our blessing. Again, thank you TBA and I look forward to many more productive years ahead serving the Lord together!

Over 3,000 people groups around the world have no missionary presence and likely no gospel access. No one is engaging them. Until now.

The vision God gives us in Revelation 7:9 — a multitude from every nation, all tribes and peoples and languages — fuels our desire to take the gospel to the ends of the earth. But, we must be willing to go further than ever before — to the edges of lostness.

NAMB's Annie Offering Exceeds $70 Million - New All-Time High Giving Milestone

North American Mission Board (NAMB) President Kevin Ezell announced Monday evening that in 2023 Southern Baptists gave an all-time record $70.2 million to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) for North American missions. Ezell shared the news during the annual fall meeting of NAMB's board of trustees in Denver.

For six of the last seven years, Southern Baptists have set records in their giving to the Annie Offering. “I am grateful for how Southern Baptists love their missionaries and for how they have bought into the vision of reaching North America through evangelism, church planting and compassion ministry,” Ezell said in comments made before the meeting. “We need more evangelistic churches, especially in regions where the Gospel presence is less visible.”

The AAEO has been the fuel that has helped Southern Baptists plant more than 10,000 churches since 2010, supporting more than 2,900 missionaries throughout North America. NAMB has provided evangelism resources and extended compassion ministry efforts throughout the continent as every contribution to the AAEO goes directly to support missionaries and ministry efforts on the field.

Since 2017, giving to the offering has attained record totals each year aside from pandemic-impacted 2020. Southern Baptists' determination to raise the bar in their support of missionaries through the AAEO has allowed NAMB to extend additional benefits to Send Network church-planting missionaries and enabled a four-year survival rate that consistently hovers around 85 percent.

“Southern Baptists do believe in what you are doing,” Ezell told trustees and church planters gathered for dinner Monday evening, Oct. 2. “We have your back,” Ezell told church planters. “And the reason we can say that with great confidence is that Southern Baptists are helping us fuel that through the Annie offering and the Cooperative Program.”

The offering is named after Southern Baptist missions pioneer, Annie Armstrong, who rallied men, women and churches to support their missionaries financially to ensure that the Gospel continued to be delivered to the nations. In 2023, that need continues as people from around the world move to the U.S. and Canada.

In comments shared before the announcement, Sandy Wisdom-Martin, executive director-treasurer for Woman's Missionary Union, noted, “Annie Armstrong once said, ‘God never issues a command without making obedience possible.’ People are moving across the planet in unprecedented ways, gaining access to the Gospel being proclaimed in North America. We must avail ourselves of the bountiful opportunities before us to share hope found only in Christ with our neighbors. “We celebrate gifts to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering and are grateful to Southern Baptists for their generosity,” Wisdom-Martin continued. “Through this giving mechanism, we are united to reach North America with the Good News.”

The offering provides more than half of NAMB's overall budget each year, and the total is counted based on giving during each fiscal year, from October through September. Since 2010, Southern Baptists have increased their giving to the Annie Offering by 29 percent.

Vance Pitman, president of Send Network, NAMB's church planting arm, pointed out that the record giving comes at a time of economic challenge and hardship for many people. “This is a year when the economy is down. Most churches are reporting their giving is down. And to see a record like this, in the midst of that,” Pitman said. “It reminds me of the verse in 2 Corinthians when Paul writes about the church of Macedonia. He said out of their abundance of joy and their deep poverty, they gave.”

Fruitland Baptist Bible College Presents 33 New Graduates

Fruitland Baptist Bible College awarded degrees to 33 new graduates during their commencement ceremony on September 15th, 2022 at the school's main campus in Hendersonville, NC. 22

English speaking students were awarded an Associates in Religion/Christian Ministries, and 11 Spanish speaking students were awarded the Certificate of Christian Leadership/Ministry.

Fruitland President Dr. David Horton said that the school's graduates mostly came to Fruitland because of the recommendation of an alumnus of Fruitland. "The very best recruiters we have for Fruitland are the alumni, and we just appreciate you very much," said Horton. "I'm very much aware this afternoon, as are these graduates, that when they come across the platform, we will be celebrating their accomplishment, but they realize that their accomplishment couldn't have happened without you as families, friends, and church families supporting them and holding them up, and walking with them through this journey."

Lance Scarlett, an Alumnus and Professor of Fruitland, gave the bilingual Baccalaureate Sermon out of Micah 6:6-8 on "I Am Graduating; Now What?" He encouraged the graduates to continue to sit at the feet of Jesus, saying, "You see a lot more when you walk. You hear a lot more when you walk. You find a lot more when you walk. Avoid the temptation of always having to be doing something, and don't think you have to justify yourself to someone else for sitting at the feet of Jesus."

Scarlett addresses the graduates in English, with Robert Fernandez interpreting into Spanish. Fernandez is the Director of Spanish Theological Education at Fruitland.

Horton reminded the audience that Fruitland is a ministry of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and that about 50% of Fruitland's budget comes from the funds of the Cooperative Program. He thanked the audience for their generous giving and support of Fruitland, as well as their continual prayers and sending students to Fruitland.

Fruitland is owned and operated by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and is supported by financial gifts through the Cooperative Program. Fruitland trains Christian leaders to serve in a variety of ministry roles at its main campus in Hendersonville, NC, and at satellite campuses across the state.

Update from the Aikens

We have been encouraged in having numerous, good mission teams who have traveled to the Northeast to assist churches in reaching their communities for Christ. Some of the work that has been done is nothing less than miraculous. The churches here are very grateful for the help of these volunteers. With some, ongoing partnerships have developed with teams returning to the same area for years. Often times these churches help the smaller church or church plant with continuous finances and resources. This is even more of a blessing. If a church does not work in community with other believers, isolation and depression set in. The gospel is hindered. We believe in partnership, networking, accountability, working together. It is the way Christ wanted His church to reach this world with the good news of salvation and restoration.

The 2024 requests for mission teams are coming in for all three of the partnerships with which we work. Many of these posted on the baptistsonmission.org web site are from new contacts that have been made this year. We are so grateful. Also churches across NC are preparing around 21,000 Christmas backpacks that will soon be distributed to children in many states. Please pray for all this as God provides the wisdom and direction for the details.

This month we have been able to make several more visits with PA pastors, worshipping with many, taking some out to eat, sharing partnership info and listening much. Throughout the time here in Pennsylvania and throughout New England, there is something that we are assured of. In the churches where there are consistent, dependable, committed workers, there is steady spiritual growth. In churches where the pastor or his wife do not have continual support, the work is weak and often dies. This support often comes from church members or accountability with other pastors or wives. One of the greatest prayer concerns we have is for God to raise up church strengthening couples who would commit to work alongside pastors and their families. These couples may come from the local community or they might come from another church or state. They could be you.

For the past twenty one years, church strengthening has been our heartbeat and passion. We have seen the benefits and joys of this ministry. Some of our dearest friends have been pastors and wives of pastors with whom we have cried, prayed, laughed and worked. Please pray with us that as many of us age, God will call other younger, willing workers. We know without any doubt, the fields are white for harvest. Time is running out. There is not time for delay or excuses. May the Holy Spirit work in all of us to do what He is calling us to do.

Thank you all for your prayers and love for us. You are all a blessing to us and we love you so much.
